MR BLUE SKY / RUBY TUESDAY

A warm welcome to the supporters players and committee from Ivybridge and Oldland Abbotonians. Two league games in four days means a double issue- thank you for supporting the printed programme tradition.

It's my family club Aston Villa's 150th anniversary this week just gone with a special shirt and programme released (both purchased) and it made me reflect on Streets history now 145 years young.

We've got some very old photographs in the clubhouse some over 125 years old. It's hard to be sure if the original shirts were green and white, Villas were black with Scottish rampant lion on before we eventually went to claret and blue with white shorts.

There is some wonderful old Pathe footage on YouTube of coverage of our FA Cup tie against Ipswich Town from 1939 where our kit is described as 'famous green and white quarters'. Today our shirts are more Real Betis from Spain than Bristol Rovers style, but it still gives me a buzz that nearly 90 years later, we are still green and white.

Hope to see you Tuesday or you're getting this Tuesday we are away to Cheddar in the Les Phillips Cup. Then the 28th next at home vs Clevedon in the county cup.

Enjoy the game.

BIGMOUTH STRIKES

This week Anthony gets philosophical about life as he reflects on life as a football fan.

AGAIN

One of the truisms about getting older – and I'm now just eighteen months short of celebrating my 70th birthday – is that you become more philosophical about life, that having absorbed all the ups and downs over a relatively lengthy lifespan you're better equipped to deal with the highs and lows still to come. In general I agree save with regard to one very significant aspect of my existence, the one that tends to dominate my weekends and occasional weekdays for roughly two-thirds of each year; yes, that's right, my life as a football supporter.

When I first became interested in the game as a passionate eight-year-old both as a player and fan I would experience the joy of victory and the bitter taste of defeat as piercingly as only a small boy can. I remember crying with frustration and disappointment at England's 0-0 draw with Uruguay in the opening match of the 1966 World Cup and feeling similarly bereft four years later at their 3-2 defeat by West Germany in the 1970 tournament, on my birthday of all days. Ditto with the triumphs (few) and reversals (many) of my favourite team, West Ham, over the succeeding years. Despite the relative lack of success in both the domestic and international spheres the fervour of my support never wavered providing me with the occasional treasured moments of sheer exaltation in amongst the more frequent ones of crushing disillusionment. A whole weekend could be ruined by what happened between 3pm and 5pm on the Saturday, the gloom not lifting until replaced by often false optimism about the upcoming weekend's prospects; alternatively, the glow of a win could make the thought of going to work on Monday less burdensome.

At some point, I can't exactly pinpoint when, I seemed to be able to take things more in my stride, be more accepting of fate but I think that all ended thanks to Steven Gerrard's late equaliser in the 2006 FA Cup Final with a thirty-five yard shot that nine times out of ten would have ended up in Row Z rather than arrowing into the bottom corner of the net. That West Ham would lose the resultant penalty shoot-out was a nailed-on certainty and I don't think I've ever recovered from that hammer-blow (see what I did there?)

Since then I've spent the last 10/15 minutes of every game in which my team (The Irons or Cobblers) has been level or only one goal ahead in agonies of pessimism, dreading what I assume will come to pass. Sometimes it gets so bad that if I'm watching on tv I'll switch off and leave the room in the blind belief that if I can't see it then it won't happen; pathetic, right? I'd wondered if I might be cured when two years ago Jarrod Bowen scored a last-minute winner in the Europa Conference League final but no; when that penalty was missed last Saturday v Wellington I knew with absolute conviction what was going to happen next. But today's going to be different..... COYC!!!!!!

STREET FC VS WELLINGTON AFC

Callum LAIRD

Toby STEPHENS

How to snatch a draw from the jaws of victory? Simple; go into the fifth minute of added on time 2-1 up, get a penalty, see your strike saved by the keeper who then also saves your follow-up. One minute later fail to deal with a long throw into your own penalty area and watch as the ball runs free to a Wellington player who gleefully smashes it into the net to earn his side a deserved point, writes Anthony Randle

Such was the tale of the last couple of minutes of this game, one which had started so promisingly for The Cobblers in the tenth minute when Callum Laird – sadly to feature prominently in that closing drama as the penalty-taker – was first to a rebound off the post to tap home his ninth goal of the season.

Things got even better four minutes later when Toby Stephens was allowed to stroll unchecked into the visitors' area and make it 2-0 with a fine finish. With Harry Foster coming agonisingly close to making it three with a splendid curled effort that clipped the angle of post and crossbar the home fans could be forgiven for thinking victory a formality but as halftime approached there were signs of Wellington getting back into the game.

Those became concrete when they pulled one back ten minutes into the second period, thereafter dominating the game.

As the minutes ticked down it seemed as if Street would hang on for a valuable three points but alas it wasn't to be and at the end, despite those unfortunate circumstances, no-one could really begrudge Wellington the result.

IVYBRIDGE CLUB HISTORY

The club was established in 1925 and joined the Plymouth & District League in 1926. They later became members of the Plymouth & District Combination, which was formed by the league's merger with the Plymouth Combination League.

In 1992 Ivybridge were founder members of the Devon County League, joining from the Plymouth & District Combination. They finished bottom of the league in 1994-95 and again in 1997-98. However, a gradual improvement in performances saw them end the 2002-03 season as league runners-up. They were runners-up again the following season, also winning the league's Charity Cup. They won the Devon Premier Cup in 2004-05, and retained it the following season, in which they were also Devon County League champions. In 2007 the Devon County League merged with the South Western League to form the South West Peninsula League, with Ivybridge placed in the Premier Division.

Following league reorganisation at the end of the 2018-19 season, Ivybridge were placed in the Premier Division East. They won the division in 2023-24, earning promotion to the Premier Division of the Western League.

Welcome to the Tannery Ivybridge Town FC

Our opponents today are having a good first season in the Jewson western league and we know it's going to be a tough encounter.

The team are determined to get back to winning ways after last weeks frustrating draw. Even though we were disappointed not to come away with maximum points, the team demonstrated some beautiful football in tough conditions which was pleasing to see.

We will continue to keep implementing our style of play on our opponent and the team are learning everytime they perform.

We are all proud to represent the club and one things for sure, this team will play with pride, passion and determination.

Let's get behind the team and keep pushing together.

On the cobblers,

Watto

LICENSE TO DEFEND

He loves defending, and after a change of scenery at Barnstaple last season he's back in 2024/25 in green and white. I sat down with our defender recently for a catch up about the season so far.

Archie thanks for joining me, you were here for a bit then went to Barnstaple last season but you're back in green and white how are you enjoying this season?

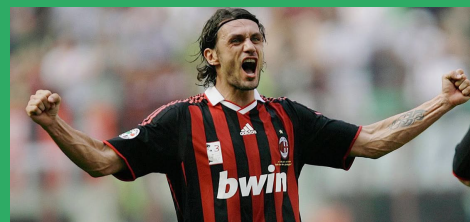

Thanks for having me. It's been great, I've loved every minute so far being back at the Tannery. Having been with Watto and Lairdy previously at Barnstaple, I knew they were both not only great coaches, but also great people. So it's been great to be back at Street with both of them.

Tell us a bit about yourself away from the football pitch?

So in terms of life away from football, I'm currently a student at Bath University and I'm on my work placement year at the moment. I'm working as a Junior Client Manger for a sports agent called Octagon. The title bigs up my role, I'm not as important as it sounds. But no, I'm really enjoying working there, we deal with lots of high profile clients, including some footballers. So it's been great to learn and be exposed to some really interesting and high profile scenarios.

What defenders in world football past or present do you admire?

One for young cobbler Cooper - can't look past John Stones. Think the way he steps out with ball and his ability to pass and break lines is something I admire and try to replicate in my game. In terms of past, it's got to be Paolo Maldini. Can't say I've watched loads of him, but growing up he was someone I'd always hear mentioned in the conversation of greatest defenders ever and often watch his clips on YouTube.

What's on your speakers / turn table at the moment? And what's a pre match and post match tune in the changing room?

Big fan of Zach Bryan at the moment, rouge choice but I'm enjoying a bit of country music. In the dressing room there's all sorts going on, we've got a joint Spotify playlist that all the lads have added to. So as you can imagine there's a good variety of stuff on there. However, the final song before we play before a match is always the Greatest Showman. Probably the only non-league team that has it, but I love it!

What's your post match beverage of choice?

I'm boring, I love a Chocolate Milkshake! So that's my go to after a game. After a game I'm always so hungry so a Chocolate Milkshake is perfect to fill me up.

What are your aspirations for The Cobblers in 2025?

PROMOTION. We're in a good place this season to challenge for a play-off spot and that's the aim come the end of the season. The lads know we haven't hit our peak yet as a squad, so could be a really exciting time if we can put a run together before the end of the season. And then who knows what could happen.

Personally, it's to play as much as I can for the cobblers and help the team in any way I can. It would also be nice to chip in with a few more goals, so I can work on my knee slides (Shepton Mallet).

Finally, just want to say a huge thank you to all the volunteers who work effortlessly during the week and on a match day to make our lives as players so easy. Having been at many clubs now, I confirm we have got the best and me and the lads are extremely grateful. Also, a big thank you to all the supports who back the lads and pack the Tannery every week, the lads really do appreciate it!!!

Oldland Abbotonians CLUB HISTORY

Bristol and District League handbooks of the 1920's revealed that the Oldland football club was founded as St. Anne's (Oldland) in 1910. Little is known about the club's fortunes between the wars but they became founder members of the Bristol Premier Combination in 1962 and were promoted to the Gloucester County League in 73, remaining there for twelve seasons until being re-elected as Oldland Decora in 1986.

Pupils at Hanham Abbots school launched Abbotonians football club as juniors in 1947 and they enjoyed many league and cup successes in the early years, including Cup wins in '61, '66 and '72. The two clubs merged in 1998, playing as Oldland Abbotonians in the Somerset Senior League. Oldland Abbotonians won the Somerset Senior League Division One in 04/05, were Premier Division runners up in 05/06 and eventually promoted to the Toolstation League in 06/07.

Oldland has often been described as a nursery for Bristol Rovers with Vic Lambden, Peter Sampson, Brian Bush and Mike Tippets all playing for the club before turning professional at Eastville. Former Rovers favourite Bobby Jones was one of many successful Oldland managers, a list which also includes David Hillier. Abbots rose to heady heights under the leadership of Alan Bush in the 1980's with the help of former Rovers players Jeff Meacham, the late Steve Talboys (Wimbledon) plus Rovers favourites Graham Day, Peter Aitken and Phil Bater. Among other youngsters who left Abbots to play for Rovers were Stuart Taylor, Phil Kite and Kevin Westaway.

The clubhouse & dressing room improvements are planned with the ground boundaries and exterior being upgraded in 2022/23 and the bar is known by many as the liveliest, friendliest and best clubhouse in the league with numerous social events in addition to match days.

Welcome to the Tannery Oldlands Abbotonians FC

It seems like yesterday when we played our opponents back at the start of the season. The game that night was full of controversy from traffic congestion resulting in players arriving after KO to last minute penalties. I am hoping today, there will be less drama and it's all about the football.

With games coming and going, we know it's the team who can maintain a level of consistency that will reach the heights at the top of the table come the end of the season. I believe if we can perform to our maximum and showcase our ability, I know we can achieve our aims.

This will be our last league game for a few weeks before we compete in two cup 1/4 finals.

I hope you get behind the team and help get us over the line.

It's a good time to be a cobbler!

CLUB HISTORY

FOUNDED IN 1880,
STREET FOOTBALL CLUB
IS ONE OF THE OLDEST ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL CLUBS IN SOMERSET.

Street FC were given the nickname 'The Cobblers' due to the large shoemaking industry in the village and surrounding area.

The Club won the Somerset Senior League 5 times and the Somerset FA Senior Cup 3 times before making its first foray into the Western League a few seasons before the onset of World War One. The Club also had its best FA Cup runs reaching the First Round Proper twice, once either side of World War Two; in 1938 away to Ipswich Town and 1947 at Cheltenham Town - after beating Yeovil Town 2-1 in front of a record 5,000 crowd at The Victoria Field in the previous round.

The closest the Club came to winning the Western League Championship during the 20th century was in season 1952-53 when they were pipped to the title by Barnstaple Town, who had a 0.01 better goal average after the sides had finished level on 44 points each. Season 1996-97 saw the Club win the Somerset Senior League for a record eighth time, thus gaining promotion back to the Western League after a 37-year absence.

Ten years later, after gaining promotion to the Premier Division in season 2005-06, the Club had its best run in The FA Vase when reaching the Fifth Round Proper before losing at Wimborne Town. After finishing as Premier Division Runners-up the previous season, the 2017-18 campaign was the Club's 50th in the Western League, and was a momentous one too!

Early results were inconsistent: but starting on 12th September, manager Richard Fey's charges completed a sensational run of 26 consecutive league victories that eventually saw the team win the title by 15 points (falling just one point short of the century) after winning 32 of their 38 games and scoring 100 goals, thus earning a place in the Southern Football League for the first time in the Club's 138-year history.

However, 2018-19 was to be the only season at the higher level for the Club as it soon became clear that Southern League football was a 'step too far': and despite a respectable seventh-place finish, the decision was taken to protect the long-term future of the Club and return to the Toolstation Western League.

In 2023/24 the Victoria Sports first joined the club to make up the reserves team squad. They did well finishing in 5th, and this season James Carey has been appointed Manager to try and get the team back to Division 1 of the county league after achieving this feat with local county league side Ashcott.

2024/25 is set to be a new exciting chapter for club with a new committee team, a rebrand plus Ben Watson and Scott Laird appointed as new managers.

RESERVES SEASON 24/25

Here's how our reserve team sit at the moment. Next game is January 11th away to Hutton. The team will be looking to take advantage of their games in hand on teams above them soon.
