EVERYBODY LOVES THE SUNSHINE

A big welcome to The Ashes to The Tannery, we hope you have a good afternoon with us and a safe trip back to Cornwall later. This is the first of the remaining 3 home fixtures of the season.

What a result last last weekend! A 7 goal thriller, a Harry Foster hat trick and a late winner from Shay! Josh Radford graces the cover today, the young winger got the winning assist on Saturday!

The club is growing, we had a good Youth meeting recently and more young people will have the opportunity to play in green and white with a pathway which means those can make the the under 18s, reserves and then the first team. We are working with local partners to make that a reality.

As it stands today we do have an outside chance to make the playoffs, if results go our way & we get the wins we will have some more football to enjoy.

A huge well done to our U12s team who won both the Taunton and Yeovil leagues, a huge shout out too for the coaches who work tirelessly all year.

Have a good Easter break, away to Bridgwater Good Friday then back up here Monday to play Clevedon.

Enjoy the game.

BIGMOUTH STRIKES

This week Anthony discusses the growing 'gulf' between the premier league and Championship

AGAIN

So it's now all-but-certain that the same three teams that got promoted to The Premier League last season are the ones going back down to The Championship at the end of this one. That'll be two consecutive seasons when that's happened, the first time in the 30-plus years of the PL's existence, a vivid illustration of the ever-widening financial gulf between the PL and the rest of the football pyramid.

The bosses of the PL and EFL have been in discussion/negotiation for the past couple of years to try and find a way to redress this growing imbalance which would basically require a couple of much needed-reforms; (a) doing away with the system of 'parachute payments' whereby the relegated clubs get a big chunk of money to help cushion their losses, the unintended consequence of which has been the establishment of a group of 'yo-yo' clubs (eg Burnley, Sheffield United, Leeds, Leicester, Norwich etc) which have been going up and down between the two leagues like....well, insert your own analogy here and (b) the PL giving a much larger overall sum to the EFL to be spread more widely amongst its member clubs (and indeed even down to the likes of The Cobblers) thus helping to level-up a playing-field that currently has a greater slope on it than the pitch at Wellington where Street found to their disadvantage a week or so ago that playing up it in the second half was indeed an uphill task.

Now, you ask yourself, why has it taken so long for these relatively straightforward issues to be addressed and resolved? Simple answer, the PL just doesn't want to give the EFL anything like the amount it's asking for. And why is that, you then ask yourself? Answer, because the PL is and always has been driven by pure greed and the unwillingness of the 'big' clubs to share any more of its colossally-amassed riches with the smaller fry. Fortunately there's a potential solution to this impasse in the form of the proposed Football Regulator where the bill currently being scrutinised in Parliament gives him or her the power to impose a financial settlement on the PL for the benefit of the wider game. But guess what? The PL and its 'big' clubs are furiously lobbying against this, claiming all sorts of spurious reasons why a Regulator isn't a good idea or isn't necessary because of course they've been doing such a good job of making themselves obscenely wealthy to the detriment of the rest of the football pyramid; er, sorry, I mean because they have always been guided by the principle of what's best for the game as a whole. Yeah, right.....

If the Football Regulation bill ends up being watered-down because of pressure from the PL and its backers then that will be a shocking dereliction of this government's pledge to create a fairer society, one in which football plays a major part. I hope the MPs and Lords shut their ears to the PL's wheedling complaints and do the right thing but I'm not holding my breath.

Saltash United CLUB HISTORY

Football in Saltash began in the 1890s with teams like Essa and Saltash Athletic, though their origins remain unclear. In 1900, Essa FC withdrew from the Devon County FA due to financial difficulties. In the 1920s, Saltash Stars and an earlier Saltash United coexisted, with the latter disbanding in 1927 due to allegations of illegal payments. Saltash Stars rebranded as Saltash Town in 1928, winning three consecutive Cornwall Senior Cups before folding in 1932.

Saltash United was reformed in 1946, competing in various leagues and winning their first match 7-1 against Landulph. They claimed the "triple crown" in 1951, winning the Cornwall Senior Cup, Herald Cup, and Cornwall Charity Cup. The club joined the South Western Football League in 1951, finishing as runners-up and winning the inaugural South Western League Cup before their FA Amateur Cup run ended in 1952.

The club moved to Kimberley Stadium in 1952, winning the South Western League title in 1953-54, but folded in 1958 due to financial struggles. Saltash United reformed in 1959, winning the East Cornwall League in 1960-61. Mike Greeno scored 160 goals by 1963.

They joined the Western League in the 1970s, winning the Division One title in 1977, and the Premier Division titles in 1985, 1987, and 1989.

The club returned to the South Western League in 1994, then briefly rejoined the Western League in 2004. Under manager Matthew Cusack, Saltash broke consecutive wins records and won the Cornwall Senior Cup in 2018. They reached the Western League Premier Division in 2021, finishing as runners-up in 2022-23 but missing out on promotion after a play-off defeat to Bristol Manor Farm.

WORDS OF WATTO

A friendly welcome to the tannery Saltash United FC

It's been a tough few weeks on the road and we are delighted to be back at the tannery with our fans. Our last home game was a solid display and we came out on top with a 2-0 victory.

We are still on a high after last week's victory against Barnstaple town FC. Many times this season we have been on the wrong end of a decision or situation. We were delighted to overcome disappointment and show our togetherness, fight and quality to gain the victory.

I have challenged the players to show that level of performance they demonstrated during the 2nd half and take that into every game. Today's opponents have had a mixed season & we know they are going to be a tough challenge like all games at this level.

The play offs are still in our sight but we know we are going to have to take maximum points from our last four fixtures if we are going to be in with a shout. The team need your support and encouragement, if we are to make our home games count.

Please get behind the team and let's go and get the victory!

BARNSTAPLE TOWN VS STREET FC

Harry FOSTER x3

Shay CORRICK

Street FC's dramatic comeback at Barnstaple Town on Saturday afternoon will be remembered as a test of resilience, heart, and pure determination. Despite trailing 3-1 with only 12 minutes left to play, The Cobblers refused to give in, turning the game on its head in the dying moments to secure a stunning 4-3 victory, writes Briggsy

The match started in blistering heat, with both sides feeling the pressure of the relentless sunshine. Street FC struck first through Harry Foster, who opened the scoring just three minutes in, capitalising on an early Barnstaple slip. Another quick start from The Cobblers. In the seventh minute, a high tackle from Sandro saw him sent off, leaving Street a man down with most of the game left to play. Later in the half Street's trouble continued as Captain Jake Horsey was forced off with an injury. From there, Barnstaple began to take control, and the hosts soon capitalised on their numerical advantage. In the 18th minute, Barnstaple pulled level through their forward, Stu Bowker, and just five minutes later, they took the lead as the relentless pressure told. Then, a penalty decision went against Street, with the former Cobbler, albeit brief, Bowker stepping up to make it 3-1.

Street's fortune changed just before halftime, as the game took another twist. A break from Freddie Haden saw him fouled by what appeared to be the last man, and Barnstaple were reduced to ten men as well, making it 10 v 10 for the second half.

The break gave Street a new lease of life, and as the game restarted, they began to rediscover their flow, dominating possession and pressing Barnstaple more and more as the minutes ticked by. Josh Radford, in particular, was causing havoc down the right flank, tormenting the Barnstaple left-back and setting up chance after chance. On 72 minutes, Freddie Haden came closest to halving the deficit, but his close-range effort was denied by a superb save from the Barnstaple keeper.

At 78 minutes, Street's persistence finally paid off. Radford's blistering run down the right saw him whip in a dangerous cross. Harry Foster's shot was deflected into the path of Haden, whose delivery into the box found Foster again, and this time, he made no mistake with a header to make it 3-2. The game was suddenly wide open. Just four minutes later, a rash challenge from a Barnstaple defender on Haden handed Street a penalty, with a chance to level the match. Foster, who had a chance to claim his hat-trick, stepped up to take the spot-kick but saw his effort denied by an incredible save from the Barnstaple keeper, who got a foot to the ball and kept his side ahead.

However, the drama was far from over. With just a minute remaining, it was the same names once again causing problems for Barnstaple. Radford's shot from the edge of the box was parried by the keeper straight into the path of Foster, who completed his hat-trick, bringing the score to 3-3. In the aftermath of the goal, a Barnstaple player was sin-binned for foul language towards the officials, leaving the hosts with only nine players on the pitch for the final moments.

With a man advantage, Street threw everything forward in search of a winner. Radford's cross from the right was poorly cleared by Barnstaple's defence, and the ball landed at the feet of substitute Shay Corrick, who made no mistake, rifling home to complete one of the most dramatic turnarounds in recent memory. Corrick sprinted to the bench, engulfed by jubilant teammates led by manager Ben Watson. This remarkable 4-3 win keeps their play-off hopes alive and finely balanced. What a comeback, and what a display of spirit from The Cobblers.

PROGRAMME THROWBACK

14 years ago this weekend my brother and I ventured on to the continent, to the Spanish capital to enjoy some La Liga football. We didn't choose Real Madrid, we opted instead for the red and white half of the city, Atletico De Madrid.

The weather was beautiful, the football also pretty nice, and a young Sergio Aguero and a slightly older Diego Forlan were on the pitch. The stadium was a lovely, a bowl shape with lots of character. It was starting to crumble around the edges though and in this programme it talks about the plans for new stadium that the team play in today.

Madrid is a lovely city. Not loads of sights but ideal for a weekend, with nice parks, galleries and great food.

Programmes in Europe aren't as much of a tradition as they are here but this is nice A4 edition with an interview with the cover star and nice memento of a Spanish match and of a ground no longer there.

CLUB HISTORY

FOUNDED IN 1880,
STREET FOOTBALL CLUB
IS ONE OF THE OLDEST ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL CLUBS IN SOMERSET.

Street FC were given the nickname 'The Cobblers' due to the large shoemaking industry in the village and surrounding area.

The Club won the Somerset Senior League 5 times and the Somerset FA Senior Cup 3 times before making its first foray into the Western League a few seasons before the onset of World War One. The Club also had its best FA Cup runs reaching the First Round Proper twice, once either side of World War Two; in 1938 away to Ipswich Town and 1947 at Cheltenham Town - after beating Yeovil Town 2-1 in front of a record 5,000 crowd at The Victoria Field in the previous round.

The closest the Club came to winning the Western League Championship during the 20th century was in season 1952-53 when they were pipped to the title by Barnstaple Town, who had a 0.01 better goal average after the sides had finished level on 44 points each. Season 1996-97 saw the Club win the Somerset Senior League for a record eighth time, thus gaining promotion back to the Western League after a 37-year absence.

Ten years later, after gaining promotion to the Premier Division in season 2005-06, the Club had its best run in The FA Vase when reaching the Fifth Round Proper before losing at Wimborne Town. After finishing as Premier Division Runners-up the previous season, the 2017-18 campaign was the Club's 50th in the Western League, and was a momentous one too!

Early results were inconsistent: but starting on 12th September, manager Richard Fey's charges completed a sensational run of 26 consecutive league victories that eventually saw the team win the title by 15 points (falling just one point short of the century) after winning 32 of their 38 games and scoring 100 goals, thus earning a place in the Southern Football League for the first time in the Club's 138-year history.

However, 2018-19 was to be the only season at the higher level for the Club as it soon became clear that Southern League football was a 'step too far': and despite a respectable seventh-place finish, the decision was taken to protect the long-term future of the Club and return to the Toolstation Western League.

In 2023/24 the Victoria Sports first joined the club to make up the reserves team squad. They did well finishing in 5th, and this season James Carey has been appointed Manager to try and get the team back to Division 1 of the county league after achieving this feat with local county league side Ashcott.

2024/25 is set to be a new exciting chapter for club with a new committee team, a rebrand plus Ben Watson and Scott Laird appointed as new managers.

RESERVES 24/25

We're in a strange place at the moment with a random 3 week break in the season & then typical of the county league have 3 games 6 days at the start of May. We've struggled with commitment this side of Xmas so already looking towards next season to build something with the more reliable ones & hopefully get some new faces involved! Last few games will give us an opportunity also to have a look at more under 18's at the club
