TURN ON THE Bright Lights

Words by

Good evening everyone and welcome to The Tannery and extra warm welcome to the travelling players, supporters and committee from Sidmouth Town AFC.

It's been a positive couple of weeks for the club- wins in the Vase and County Cup and league for the first team and the reserves still unbeaten. We sadly lost on Saturday to Clevedon who are still undefeated however we did go 1-0 up from Freddie Haden.

Turn On The Bright Lights is the title of the brilliant debut album from American band Interpol- (recommended for fans of Joy Division and The Smiths) and it's certainly something we will be doing this month as we have consecutive Tuesday evening games weekly this month all at home.

Charlie Bateson graces our cover tonight, and he's certainly made a fast start to life at Street FC. Topped off by a wonder goal last week vs Bradford Town.

Our two under 18s teams are underway this season- our midweek team won in the FA youth cup and Alex Goodman of the reserves was successful in his first game in charge on Sunday for our other under 18s 4-2 away from home.

Our women's team went 1-0 down but came out 5-1 winners too on Sunday a great start for them.

Enjoy the game tonight.

MY BIG MOUTH

Words by
Antony Randle

Does being a fan of a particular football club mean you have to automatically support/endorse everything about it and its players whilst simultaneously decrying/criticising everything about the opposition? The sensible answer, of course, is 'no' yet some recent events have made me wonder if I'm in the minority in holding to that view.

At our recent fixture away at Bridgwater I chose to sit, with my daughter and a friend, in their main stand which was almost entirely populated by home supporters. About three rows behind me there was a Bridgy fan who kept up a loud running commentary throughout the first half in which every tackle by a Street player was a foul, every time a Street player was fouled he dived, every decision made by the officials in Street's favour (even goal/corner kicks and throw-ons) was rubbish etc etc....you get my drift. His relentlessly one-eyed partisanship was doing my head in so badly that I had to move at halftime because I just couldn't trust myself to stay silent any longer, certain that even a mild response would provoke a torrent of abuse.

I have a friend who's a Liverpool fan though he used to support Leeds until they stopped being successful so he switched allegiance to a club that was then (early/mid 1970s) beginning to assert a dominance that lasted for much of the next ten/fifteen years. Like those who convert from one religion/political party to another, his zealotry in support of Liverpool provokes furious condemnation by him of all or any adverse comment on the club, its players or manager which is very wearisome when we're with a group of mates having a general chat about the current state of the game or the respective teams we follow. Plus he makes himself look silly; having bragged for years (contrary to actual facts) about how unlike the other 'big' clubs Liverpool's success wasn't based on splashing huge amounts of cash on transfers, now they've spaffed close to £500m in this latest window he can't bring himself to admit that they're no different.

Talking of which..... whilst I entirely share the scorn of the Newcastle fans for the behaviour of Alexander Isak in forcing his record-breaking transfer to Liverpool, can they not see the irony in their lavish welcome of Yoanne Wissa who did exactly the same thing, refusing to play etc in engineering his move from Brentford to the northeast?

I have always tried, when watching both of the teams I support, to take a balanced view of what I see. Yes, I may sometimes claim in the heat of the moment that our player hasn't gone down too easily or fouled his opponent but on reflection (or action replay) am generally prepared to accept that I was wrong. Seeing it from the other perspective only enhances my appreciation of the game as a whole and permits me better to express/contain my emotions, to accept both reversal and triumph equally, a notion that I suspect is sadly alien to that annoying Bridgy fan.

Sidmouth Town CLUB HISTORY

The history of Sidmouth Football Club since it's inception has been one of continuous development through to the present day. As you will see the Club is now a far cry from its humble beginnings in the century before last, and a credit to the fathers of Sidmouth football that the 'Vikings' continue to thrive to this day.

Although Sidmouth FC was founded in 1895 and football was regularly played in the town, the first evidence of a fully constituted league-based football club in Sidmouth was in 1912 when a team known as the Sidmouth 'Young Unionists Association Football Club' played in the East Devon League. However, after just two seasons the First World war disrupted their progress. The newspaper clipping below records the Club AGM of the time and mentions one C. Mortimore as a frequent goal-scorer. He is an ancestor of Ken Mortimore who has been involved with the Club over many years and remains so to this day, as club groundsman.

In 1919 the team seems to have been reformed and played until 1922 possibly as the Sidmouth 'Imps' when they joined the Ottery & District League for just one season. They won that at the first time of asking so re-joined the East Devon League until 1928 when they switched across to the Victory League for one season before a return to the East Devon League where, in 1931, they became Junior Division 1 East champions.

In 1937 Sidmouth became champions again so re-tried their hand back in the Victory League until progress was again hampered by the intervention of World War 2.

After the war Sidmouth moved back to the East Devon League which was now known as the Exeter & District League, and in 1957 were promoted to the Premier division for the first time.

In 1968 Sidmouth won the Premier title for the first time but in the 1980s they found themselves back in Senior division football on three occasions although they did win the Senior Division 1 'A' title in 1987.

In the 1990/1991 season, when three points were first awarded for a win, the Vikings were relegated, but returned to the Premier division a year later despite only finishing eighth. This was because the Devon & Exeter League, as it had now become, saw a number of its Premier teams transfer to the newly formed Devon League, and had to change its constitution so clubs with better facilities such as Sidmouth were favoured.

Sidmouth were then in the Premier Division where they won the championship for the second time in 2011. They then decided to step up to the South-West Peninsular League (East Division) where they played their football until 2025.

Following an entirely forgettable first half in which neither side managed anything of note this game burst into life on 55 minutes with a sublime goal for The Cobblers from the boot of Charlie Bateson, teeing up a ball received from his left just outside the box with his right foot before looping a left-foot volley over the Bradford keeper.

Alas, hopes that the home side might push on from there to make the game safe were dashed ten minutes later when a fumble by keeper Liam Kingston saw the ball drop to an opposition player who gratefully accepted the gift to bring his team level. Thereafter things pretty much reverted to the first-half pattern with only a couple of late sendings-off of Street players – Bateson and Jakob Dickens, both for second yellow cards – providing any drama though it took a great save from the Bradford keeper to prevent Preston Hopwood's fierce drive from giving Street the win.

Sadly the referee didn't help in failing to exercise any control over the visitors' onfield antics, theatrical over-reactions and loud screams together with much arm-waving and mobbing of the officials whenever their players were tackled injecting a constant sour note into a game that became increasingly untidy and consequently low on quality and entertainment. In the end, whilst a draw was probably a fair result, football was the loser.

After a long journey, Street started brightly, creating several chances in the opening 20 minutes but were unable to convert. St Blazey responded with a couple of opportunities of their own, only to be denied by some excellent saves from Liam Kingston, keeping the game level.

Street's breakthrough came after a dangerous attack down the right, when Nelson delivered a superb cross into the box that was turned into the net by a St Blazey defender. The visitors went into half-time with a deserved 0-1 lead.

The second half began in similar fashion, with Street enjoying the majority of possession. Another strong move down the wing led to a second goal, as another well-placed cross into the box was converted.

With a couple of substitutions made, Street took full control of the game, creating chance after chance. Their dominance was rewarded as they added three more goals, sealing an emphatic 0-5 victory.

It was another excellent example of game management and a solid all-round team performance from Street.

A night under the lights saw Street progress into the next round of the Somerset Cup with a confident performance against a young and hardworking Keynsham side.

Street started on the front foot, applying constant pressure to the Keynsham back line and creating several early chances. With plenty of possession but no breakthrough, it was an in-swinging corner that finally opened the scoring, the ball evading everyone and finding its way directly into the net.

The pattern of play continued with Street dominating possession, but just before the break Keynsham capitalised on a mistake at the back, breaking quickly to level the score at 1-1. Street responded immediately, as Jordan drove into the box and was pulled back, earning a penalty. Harry Foster stepped up and coolly converted to restore the lead at 2-1 going into half time.

Keynsham came out strong in the second half, pressing forward and striking the crossbar during a bright spell. However, once Street weathered the early pressure, they regained control and added two more goals to secure the tie.

A solid win for Street, who advance after a professional performance against a spirited Keynsham outfit.

Captains LOG

After our defeat at Clevedon, it's vital that we show the right response. Every strong side goes through setbacks during a season, but the difference between good teams and great teams is how they react to those moments. Tonight gives us the perfect opportunity to put things right, to prove our character, and to remind ourselves of the standards we set as a group.

We know the quality we have in this squad, and we know what we are capable of when we play with intensity, discipline, and togetherness. The best teams always bounce back, not just by turning up, but by showing fight, desire, and determination from the first whistle to the last

Watto

A friendly welcome to the Tannery Sidmouth Town FC.

Today's opponents have had a great start to the season and we will have to be at our best if we are going to gain 3 points.

It's great to be back under the lights at home after 3 away games in a week.

The performances have been excellent and I thought we were fantastic on Saturday although we didn't get the outcome we wanted, we will take the positives and keep looking to improve and progress.

We have a very busy September with lots of matches. We will be taking one game at a time and the whole squad will need to be ready.

We hope we can get back to winning ways tonight and your support will be vital as always.

Let's get behind the team and keep pushing forward.

Up the Cobblers!

FOLLOWING MY HOME TOWN TEAM

Words by
Russell Newcombe

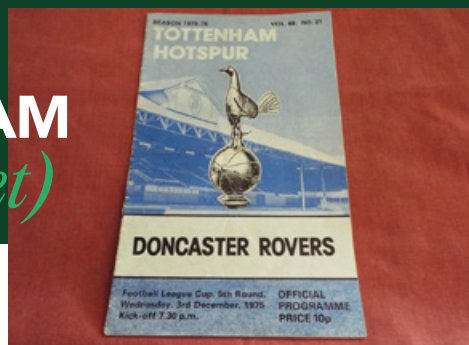

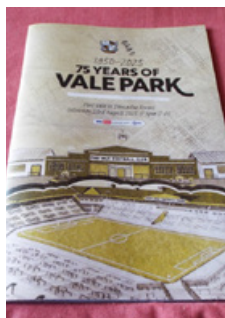

(and Street)

Well, what more can be said about following my hometown (birth town) team, brought up with them in the late 60s, first ever game being a mid-season International friendly against an American side, Dallas Tornadoes who were on a European tour, with a creditable 2 – 2 draw the journey had begun.

So, my first ever taste of watching “The Rovers” I was hooked, enough to follow them for the rest of that season and then a few seasons later around the country watching them away, mainly by train in those days, more so by coach latterly, and some 56 years later (and counting) I’m still hooked, even though I now live in Somerset and follow the mighty cobblers, I still manage to go and watch The Rovers.

This season has seen me watching them midweek in Middlesbrough and Huddersfield to away at Port Vale and soon hopefully Tottenham Hotspur and their space-age stadium, a bit different to old White Hart Lane.

Throughout the 50 odd years I’ve seen some right garbage Rovers sides and also some great ones, garbage grounds too from old run-down Belle Vue to the ultra-modern Eco Power Stadium and the new Wembley. From down in the depths of Division 4, now League 2, up to the dizzy heights of the old 2nd division (now the Championship), and even down to the Conference.

Through the terrible running battles of the 70s and 80s, especially with Rotherham, Barnsley, Sheffield United and Darlington, through to now the better days, better all round with modern stadiums and a more friendly clientele, mostly, we don’t want the hooligan rubbish to return.

Traipsing around the country like thousands upon thousands of fellow away fans in their coaches, cars and trains, with the Rovers, quite a good loyal following, over 2,000 at Huddersfield, over a thousand at Middlesbrough down to 800 at Port Vale, so the numbers “hooked” like I was, is always there, and no doubt going down in their thousands to the new Tottenham Hotspur Stadium.

From 5 – 0 down at half time at Bournemouth in Division 3, look where they are now, through to 1975 and the mighty Tottenham Hotspur away in the quarter final of the League Cup, took the lead, 2 – 1 down at Half Time only to equalise, could we? Na, not a chance, we’re still celebrating when our right back scored an own goal and it soon went downhill from there, finishing up at a 7 – 2 defeat, never mind, 50 years later, September 2025 and who knows? Could we?, lets wait and see in our ongoing story of following my hometown team.

Had some pretty good adventures with Street also in their most recent Southern League adventure, so it’s not always the bigger boys, little old Street can compete with them too for the adventures.

COBB

FOUNDED IN 1880, STREET F.C. IS ONE OF THE OLDEST ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL CLUBS IN SOMERSET.

Street FC were given the nickname 'The Cobblers' due to the large shoemaking industry in the village and surrounding area.

-LERS

The moustache
laden Street team
of 1908

The Club won the Somerset Senior League 5 times and the Somerset FA Senior Cup 3 times before making its first foray into the Western League a few seasons before the onset of World War One. The Club also had its best FA Cup runs reaching the First Round Proper twice, once either side of World War Two; in 1938 away to Ipswich Town and 1947 at Cheltenham Town - after beating Yeovil Town 2-1 in front of a record 5,000 crowd at The Victoria Field in the previous round.

The closest the Club came to winning the Western League Championship during the 20th century was in season 1952-53 when they were pipped to the title by Barnstaple Town, who had a 0.01 better goal average after the sides had finished level on 44 points each. Season 1996-97 saw the Club win the Somerset Senior League for a record eighth time, thus gaining promotion back to the Western League after a 37-year absence.

Ten years later, after gaining promotion to the Premier Division in season 2005-06, the Club had its best run in The FA Vase when reaching the Fifth Round Proper before losing at Wimborne Town. After finishing as Premier Division Runners-up the previous season, the 2017-18 campaign was the Club's 50th in the Western League, and was a momentous one too!

Early results were inconsistent: but starting on 12th September, manager Richard Fey's charges completed a sensational run of 26 consecutive league victories that eventually saw the team win the title by 15 points (falling just one point short of the century) after winning 32 of their 38 games and scoring 100 goals, thus earning a place in the Southern Football League for the first time in the Club's 138-year history.

However, 2018-19 was to be the only season at the higher level for the Club as it soon became clear that Southern League football was a 'step too far': and despite a respectable seventh-place finish, the decision was taken to protect the long-term future of the Club and return to the Toolstation Western League.

In 2023/24 the Victoria Sports first joined the club to make up the reserves team squad. They did well finishing in 5th, and this season James Carey has been appointed Manager to try and get the team back to Division 1 of the county league after achieving this feat with local county league side Ashcott.

The 2024/25 season saw an 8th place finish for the club ;5 points off the playoffs, and a semi final of the league cup .Lots of success for the youth team including a new girls team and our women's team finish the season really strongly.

The 2025/26 season looks very promising with some exciting new additions and majority of last seasons first team squad remaining in green and white.
